

FAIRFAX COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

ACTIVITY REPORT

FEBRUARY 26, 2010

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH FEBRUARY 24, 2010

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

There are three sections in this report: Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section II: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section III: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that a news release was distributed on that offense.

Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS

COUNTY-WIDE

OVERALL CRIME DROPS IN 2009: *Fairfax County ended 2009 with an overall drop of nearly 5 percent in index crimes compared with 2008. Index crimes, reported monthly to federal authorities, include murder, rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny and motor vehicle theft.

Violent crimes (murder, rape, robbery and aggravated assault) decreased by 14.6 percent: property crimes (burglary, larceny and motor vehicle theft) decreased by 4.5 percent.

"I'm pleased to see the drop in overall crime and especially the nearly 15 percent decline in violent crime," said Colonel Dave Rohrer, Chief of the Fairfax County Police Department.

"One of our key anti-crime strategies is our focus on repeat offenders. Historically, a small percentage of offenders commit a high percentage of crimes, and we have made it a priority to focus on them."

Crime	Jan. – Dec. 2008	Jan.– Dec. 2009
Murder	22	14
Rape	95	105
Robbery	450	386
Aggravated Assault	386	309
Burglary	1,438	1,385
Larceny	16,244	15,643
Motor Vehicle Theft	1,288	1,096
Total	19,923	18,938

The Fairfax County Police Department releases reported index crimes using the FBI's Uniform Crime Report criteria. The year-to-date data contained in this release is subject to change due to data revision and updating.

These statistics are used to identify trends and to implement new and continuing strategies to enhance public safety, and in making decisions about deployment of police resources to better respond to the needs of the community.

RESTON DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 5)

UPDATE: OFFICER-INVOLVED SHOOTING: * Commonwealth's Attorney Raymond F. Morrogh has informed Colonel David M. Rohrer, Chief of the Fairfax County Police Department that he finds "no basis for criminal liability" on the part of the officer who shot and wounded a 25-year-old man on Friday, February 5, 2010.

Police were called to a home in the 2500 block of Fallon Drive just before 11 p.m. on Thursday, February 4. Officers learned the adult son living in the home had mental health issues, was very agitated, appeared to be under the influence of drugs, and had a weapon. Responding officers removed the family from the home for their own protection. Repeated telephone calls and text messages to the home went unanswered.

Two tactical officers, a police K-9 handler, and his dog entered a hallway in the basement to serve an Emergency Custody Order. The 25-year-old suddenly burst out from behind a partially closed bathroom door, pointed a gun directly at a TAC officer, and was advancing quickly when the officer fired his duty weapon.

Investigators have determined the weapon he pointed at officers is an air gun replica of a semi-automatic handgun. An internal investigation of this incident is continuing.

PET ADOPTION: *Put your television set on “paws” and come meet some critters that are sure to win your heart at the Fairfax County Animal Shelter. The shelter’s motto for its winter games adoption celebration is “Adopt from us: You Can’t Luge.”

Meet a few of the shelter’s notable competitors, all seeking warmth and love in a new home:

- “Plush-enko”; a long-haired cat looking for a good home. “I’m going for the “purr-fect score” -- a new family,” “Plush” explains.

- Feline Boomer's signature "method grab" toy mouse technique as he showboats for your attention is much in the style of U.S. Olympian Lindsey Jacobellis. "I'm willing to forego a gold medal to get a good home," says the loveable feline showing the true flavor of his sport.
- A "luge course", newly carved in the animal shelter's outdoor dog exercise area by dogs frolicking in the snow from the area's latest blizzard. Zipping around the yard, the shelter dogs are true medal contenders in both speed and agility.
- Professional curlers—otherwise known as lap cats and dogs—who are seeking good homes to prove that their laid back sport is no joke.

"Families are sure to strike gold by adopting a shelter animal," says Shelter Director Dr. Karen P. Diviney. "We're going for a season's best with our adoptions this winter."

The Fairfax County Animal Shelter will feature their animals this weekend and throughout the remainder of the Games. To view animals available for adoption, visit <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/police/animalservices/> and click on adoption.

The shelter is located at 4500 West Ox Rd., Fairfax, VA 22030. Regular adoption hours are Tuesday – Friday, 12 p.m. – 6:30 p.m. and Saturday 10 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. For more information, contact the shelter at (703) 830-1100.
